CORA IS MRS. SINN.

Chief Justice Clement Decides in Favor of the Actress.

The Brooklyn Theatrical Manager Is Her Legal Husband.

End of the illterly-Fought full for Divorce.

Chief Justice Clement, in the City Court, Brocklyn, to-day handed down a decision in the suit brought by Col. William E. Sinn, the well-known theatrical manager and lessee of the Park Theatre, who sought to have his marriage with Cora Tanner, the actress, annulled on the ground that she was already the wife of Dr. C. Frederick Farlin, of Rochester, at the time she married the Colonel.

Justice Clement decides in favor of the actress, and orders Col. Sinn's part of the action.

The couple were married at Cleveland, O. Feb. 14, 1885. They have had no children.

Col. Sinn's suit to have his marriage annulled was based on the ground that she was never legally divorced from Dr. Farlin.

Farlin and the actress were married in Lansing, Mich., in September, 1878. They only lived together a short time, when they separated and she continued on her theatrical four.

It wasn't are and at last by the execution of Riel.

GOBLE HOUSE GHOSTS.

Strange Light That Visits This Old Homestead in Jersey.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., June 26.-Residents of the little village of Burrsville, of agitation over the strange lights thich are said to emanate from the old Goble mansion. The house was formerly occupied by Jonathan Goble, his epileptic son Albert and his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Paterson, the latter a daughter of Jonathan.

About a year ago the entire family moved to a less pretensious house, for which they paid rent, though poor, and would give no explanation for their strange action.

After their removal it was recalled that old Mrs. Goble, Jonathan's mother, who died in the house several years ago, was once the victim of a peculiar robbery. She said she had a number of gold coins in her pocketbook, and during the night some their got in the house and stole them.

One night last Winter the windows of the deserted house were illuminated. The next morning there were no signs of footmarks in the snow, and the doors were tightly locked.

Other stories are being told to the effect that the Goble family moved because the house was haunted. Whatever the cause of the strange light, the neighbors are fearfully worked up over it, and some are moving from the neighthen the light has been seen a

Evans Held, for Malicious Mischief and His Katle Is Glad.

In the Tombs Police Court this morn ing Policeman O'Connell, of the Sixth Precinct, arraigned Charles H. Evans, aged thirty-one, colored, on a charge of arson. He is employed on the Old Dominion dock and has lived with a colored woman, Katie Davis, at 35 1-2
Baxter street for several months.
Evans and Katie had a quarrel yesterday and the woman went to the house of a friend. She refused to return to Evans's rooms, and he, in a jeslous fit, got all her clothing and piled it on the floor. He then set fire to it, and the smoke issuing from the windows attracted the attention of the officer, who jumped upstairs and put out the flames.

The latter was the person referred to by Mr. Patten as the only man in New York who claimed that he could distinguish between Calcutta and California haus.

Mr. Cullins was called as the first witness, He said he had been in the business of importing bags for nine years. He believed that he could tell a foreign from a domestic made bag every time by means of the sewing and selvedge, as well as by other marks.

The only large manufactory of jute bagging in this country, the witness said, was in California. In that Siate the annual output of cutal bags was from 6,000,000 to 29,000,000.

The statistics showed that from 16,000,000 to 29,000,000 fass were returned to this country from abroad every year, showm githat from 1w0 to three times as many bags were annually returned to this country than were made here.

Mr. Collins mentioned several other points of difference between Calcutta and California bags, and said that any expert ought to be able to distinguish them.

Should the plan offered be adopted it would be necessary for the Company to raise at once $10,000,000 or $12,000,000, and this is one of the points to be considered. Whether the "L" people favor the 5 per cent, compensation, with $125,000 as the minimum annual payment, or the $175,000 lump sum plan is not yet apparent.
